Museum of Polish Children

victims of totalitarianism

GROUP ACTIVITIES OFFERED

The activities will be:
• free of charge
• held from Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Registration is required:
Joanna Frydenberg, Head of the Education Department mobile: 797 595 091
jfrydenberg@muzeumdziecipolskich.pl

Exhibition "Mamo, czemu nie przyjeżdżasz ? Listy dzieci z obozu na Przemysłowej" [Mom, why haven't you come yet... Letters from the children of the camp in Przemysłowa Street]

A guided tour of the modern, thought-provoking multimedia exhibition.
The narrative explores the origins of the camp, the living conditions of the young prisoners and their experiences of childhood during wartime.
• duration: 80 minutes
• age recommendation: 12 years and older
• group size: up to 15 people
• the Museum is located at ul. Piotrkowska 90 in Łódź

"To było tu…" [It was here...] – outdoor activities – an educational walk around the site of the former camp in Przemysłowa Street in Łódź

The primary goal is to explore the remnants of the camp and understand its operations. Educators will discuss the daily lives of the young prisoners and share archival photographs.

• duration: 90 minutes
• age recommendation: 12 years and older
• group size: up to 25 people
• meeting point:
- the "Broken Heart" monument in Szarych Szeregów Park, Łódź

Outdoor painting workshops with the "Broken Heart" monument as a backdrop – historical and artistic activities in the city.

The wartime history of Łódź, the experiences of young prisoners in the German camp for Polish children and the emotions evoked in participants by the "Broken Heart" monument. These elements are integrated into outdoor painting workshops, where participants create artwork inspired by the monument's form.

• duration: 60 minutes
• activities for younger children – grades 3-6 of a primary school
• group size: up to 25 people
• assembly point:
- the "Broken Heart" monument in Szarych Szeregów Park, Łódź
• the organiser provides sketchpads, pencils and crayons